

Attending 6th Annual Story Crossroads Festival: The Hybrid

Frequently Asked Questions

What do you mean by “The Hybrid” Festival? We are offering this event as a virtual and as an in-person experience. Your ticket covers any virtual and/or in-person portions of the festival.

How do we register for the 6th Annual Story Crossroads Festival? Registration includes:

- Basic information: Fill out your name, number of people in your household (1+), email, zipcode (assist in grant final reports), and questions (if any)
- Payment: You can pay at time of registration OR choose "invoice" though it must be paid in full by June 14, 2021, to receive a link for access. Tickets are $20 per person/household (1+). You also have the option to pay for “guests” such as another household as well as donating beyond the ticket price.
- Go to storycrossroads.org/festival or click here for direct registration link.

What ages/grades are best for this Festival? Anyone from Kindergarten to senior citizens will enjoy this Festival. The materials shared are family-friendly. There will be a couple performances or academic sessions best for teens and adults though technically ages 10+ would still enjoy and understand them.

What is the platform being used for the virtual part of the Story Crossroads Festival in order to view?

We will use our YouTube Channel as an unlisted playlist with the link given only to registrants. Besides this link, the festival schedule webpage reminds the overall schedule. We will have a mix of pre-recorded such as Csenge Zalka from Hungary filmed in her land specific for us or some of our youth tellers as well as livestreamed events where you can ask questions such as the academic discussion. If you are unable to watch during the scheduled times, you can return to the unlisted YouTube link and view from May 10-June 15, 2021.

What if we want to experience the proper-distanced/outdoors/masked part of the Story Crossroads Festival?

While most of the opportunities are virtual, we wanted to have the live side of performance on Tuesday, May 11, 2021, starting at 9:30am at the Murray City Park, Murray, Utah. We are videotaping with multiple cameras for these live performances to then be available to be viewed by registrants online. If you are interested in seat(s) at this live part, then checkmark “live” in your ticketing/registration and we will be in touch on how to proceed. You can also email us at info@storycrossroads.org.

When can you expect reminders and more details about the Festival? We will send out reminders and more details are also shared upon registration confirmation as well as on May 10, 2021. We will have written and short videos to explain how to benefit the most for this Hybrid Festival experience.

Who funds this event? Funding has come from the National Endowment for the Arts, Utah Division of Arts and Museums/Utah Legislature, Utah Humanities, Western States Arts Federation, Zoo, Arts & Parks (ZAP) of Salt Lake County, Salt Lake City Arts Council, Clever Octopus, and 80+ individuals and organizational donors.

How do we donate to your 501(c)3 nonprofit? Donations are always appreciated. You can go to storycrossroads.org/donate for the direct way as well as supporting by creating a Facebook fundraiser or purchasing through Smile Amazon.
